

Bryant University
DigitalCommons@Bryant University

---

Trickey, Katherine W.

Letters by Women During World War II

---

8-27-1945

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 27, 1945

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

---

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 27, 1945" (1945). Trickey, Katherine W. Paper 133.
<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/133>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

Mon. 27 Aug.
4.45 -

Dear Folks,

I had such a nice week-end Cook and I went to Macon Sat evening and had a room at the Georgian and slept and slept. We did go to church but that was the extent of our enterprise. I had this morning off so changed to a single room for last night and my didn't I sleep sweet last night. Best night's sleep I've had for a long time. The bed was just right and I woke up feeling so rested. This is the first time I've been away since furlough, and I really needed to.

Major Tuttle got his orders and left Sat. for Ft. Devens, Mass. Maj Reniker is now our boss. He's nice. I guess there will not be much change by him.

Grande just got back from a week-end at St Simon's Island off Brunswick Ga. Sounds good. I'm going to try to go there on my three-day pass, if I ~~ever~~ get one.

This is a short short letter but I just can't think of anymore to write

Kay